My dear friend

There must have been something telepathic about your thought of sending me
these beautiful green things. Hardly had my letter to you
left the house than
the boy walked in.
I think I know

just where you
 fastened some of it,
 at least I have
 myself fastened this cedar with the
 pretty seeds, on your hill top. The two beautiful ones
 I have hung in my little hall way
 and anyone feeling
 over there.

I thought^{C37} for a little while I should have a few days
 in the mountains
 this summer - in that little "rag-a-
 muffin" place
 where you once
 found me, and if I had time I
 meant to ask
 if you would go
 too. But I have had to give it up
